

Lassa

*Courtesy post
for current owner*

LASSA: Catahoula Leopard Dog mix: high energy, playful, and smart
Approx 3yrs young,,female, spayed and current on vaccines, est 60 lbs.
Current on flea/tick and hw prevention

Knows: Sit/ Lie Down - Stay - Come - Wait- "Out"- when not overly excited or distracted
Current owner does not use crate (unsure if crate trained)

Free roaming in fenced yard currently; does not walk well on leash

She LOVES attention and new people- will jump when overly excited- hand lickingabundant sniffing- very excited over neighbor dogs- after sniffing wants to play

Interaction w/visitors: Will bark/ wags tail/ jumping and sniffing

Temperament- Lassa is a very sweet girl, loves attention and play. She will flop down next to you and take a nap, but as a high-energy dog, is always up to lots of running and playing. She's very attentive, is eager to please, and smart; was pleasantly surprised at how quickly she learned the house rules and "procedure". She loves tummy rubs especially, and scrubs behind the ears.

Other dogs: Lassa is very playful and wants to play with the neighbor dogs- she gets excited at first, sniffs, and then seems content to run back and forth along the fence line.

House training- She knows she's not supposed to mess in the house. She really does get the guilty look, so it's just something that she needs practice with. A regular eating schedule is most beneficial.

Lassa was adopted almost 3 months ago from Darke County Animal shelter (listed as stray)
The dog she lives with (German Shep) is not happy with LASSA in the home; there is intense jealousy from the German Shep who dislikes LASSA's presence and energy, and doesn't want to share "mom"; causing reactivity and aggression from the German Shep. LASSA really wants to play with Annika (Germ Shep) but Annika will not tolerate her. LASSA goes outside to a separate yard, and then Annika (Germ Shep) is let out, they excitedly run along the fence line, but are NOT together . FOR MORE INFORMATION, Email maryteacher805@yahoo.com
