

Rosie

ROSIE is now spayed (no more breeding for her!), fully vetted, flea/tick free, hw negative, and ready for a FOSTER or FOREVER home... Her current short term foster ENDS July 5th. She is approx 4yrs young and about 55lbs.

ROSIE is a quiet, calm, a true introvert, and a bit timid with unfamiliar places, people, and life adventures ((inside and outside the home). Other dogs don't seem to interest her, and can be a bit scary for her. SO Ms. ROSIE will thrive with someone who can provide PATIENCE and GENTLE GUIDANCE to help her feel comfortable, safe & secure with her new life journey. She is a girl that is happy and content to be a "couch potato" companion to someone who enjoys a calm & quiet lifestyle or taking short walks when weather permits.

ROSIE is crate trained, house trained, doesn't bark, doesn't run, little to no shedding, walks great on leash, and prefers a life of leisure. It seems she MAY have spent her previous life living in a basement or apartment with very little time enjoying or experiencing a variety of life adventures. WHO will be the special someone to love, cherish and help this girl enjoy a brand new lifestyle?
